do anything to them. Jose was elected to the Working Comm. of the All India Students Congress. He will become a great youth leader one day, there is no doubt about that. May luck reign about him. Hope you had a good Christmas and I sent you my greetings for a happy & prosperous N'year. Write to me a letter stating everything and what your programme is like. As for me I have ~~early~~ nearly solved my problem and I shall tell you more as soon as it is all settled. Till then let us be silent about it. So good bye and good luck. Write to me immediately.

My dearest Win,

Heartiest congratulations on your engagement to Charles.....

Well sister I have decided to take the job Mistri Airways have offered me, although Eric de Costa said I would have good prospects in his concern. But as the pay Mistri's were offering was much more, and I may only have to remain temporarily with them because of the fact that if I get selected for the Diplomatic Service I shall take that, I have decided to take the Airways job. I've written to them and shall go to Bombay about the 8th of February. There I shall work a month and then return to Calcutta to run their office here.

This week I have been very busy with the Netaji Birthday celebrations with plenty of meetings to attend to etc. The Bengal I.N.A. Relief Committee have certainly done things on a big scale having invited from outside over 150 I.N.A. Officers. It gives us an opportunity also of meeting and reviewing our affairs.

Forward Bloc

2.12.87

The younger section of the B.V. Group members in the Forward Bloc in spite of their being annoyed with SATYA RANJAN BAKSHI (ESP-BVG) for his inactivity and alleged lack of interest in party work and subservient to SARAT CHANDRA BASU (ESP) seems to have been convinced by the views expressed by BAKSHI. The I.N.A. and the problems affecting its organisation and consolidation are now engaging BAKSHI'S attention as, according to him, the Forward Bloc cannot assert itself in future if it loses its influence over the I.N.A. The possibility of the Bloc's being isolated from the I.N.A. remains, as BAKSHI thinks, so long as the Congress continues to exploit the I.N.A. to its own advantage. He considers, therefore, that the I.N.A. must be consolidated under the leadership of SARAT CHANDRA BASU, brother of "Netaji" SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU and at the same time, the Forward Bloc should be developed as a political organisation pledged to the task of preaching and propagating the ideology of SUBHAS CHANDRA BOSE. BAKSHI claims that the I.N.A. will be organised as the "Military" section of the Forward Bloc.

According to the Forward Bloc Marxist circles, the B.V. Group is trying to capture the different fronts. For that end, DR. BHUPAL BASU has established a close contact with the I.N.A.C. (Indian National Ambulance Corps) besides SATYA RANJAN BAKSHI who is already pre-occupied in the affairs of the I.N.A.

I received your letter a couple of days back. I am sorry I could not reply to it earlier. Frankly I was very much distressed to read that letter. Never in my dreams I can imagine that after all that you have done this is the kind of treatment that has been meted out. Still as you know we have been all brought up on the traditions of Subas Babu and Bhai who believed that it was wrong to expect anything and much greater wrong to smart under a wrong or to go under it.
What others do or do not do should not affect our lives.

After your letter I have been making inquiries for a suitable job and two offers have been made and I should be very happy paid tributes to the memory of DEBABRATA DAS and MOHIT RAY, who laid down their lives on the day last year. Resolutions were passed (1) mourning their death and conveying sympathy to their bereaved relations and (2) demanding the immediate release of RASHID ALI and other I.N.A. officers. PROF. PRATULANANDA DAS GUPTA (incompletely identified) recalled the speeches of SUBHAS BASU delivered at the Vidyasagar Hostel in 1939 when he said that freedom could not be achieved without violence and urged the audience to follow his ideals. SATYA BHUSAN GUPTA urged the audience always to be guided by a policy of blood for blood, sword for sword and blow for blow. He also remarked that they are to wrest freedom from the British and to kick them out of India. Copies of a printed Bengali leaflet entitled "Barai February Palan Karoon" (observe the 12th February) were distributed. It recalls the incidents following the agitation for the release of RASHID ALI. It says that it will be an insult to the martyrs DEBABRATA AND MOHIT if the oppressors are pardoned and urges the people to declare a struggle against the British oppression.

RANJIT KUMAR SEN GUPTA is aged 31 years. He is a matriculate clerk in the Postal Department. In 1941, he volunteered for service in the Military Postal Unit and was sent to PENANG in MALAYA with his Unit. After arrival there he was posted as Postmaster in Field Post Office No. 30-C at Bertas State, MALAYA. After several transfers he was ultimately posted to SINGAPORE where he surrendered to the JAPANESE on the 15th. of February, 1942. In October, 1942 he joined the I.N.A. and was posted to the S.S.Group which was subsequently re-named "Phadur Group", by Subhas Chandra Bose. He underwent about six months training in the S.S.Group at NETBOON Camp in drill, the handling of pistols, tommy guns etc. in telegraphy, wireless, demolition work, the handling of mines and dynamite and in assuming disguises for the purpose of infiltration into India. In November 1942, while under training, he was commissioned in the I.N.A. In March, 1943, the S.S.Group moved to BATU PAHAT in MALAYA, where members were given further training in guerrilla warfare. In September 1943, the group moved to RANGOON the new headquarters. In March, 1944 RANJIT KUMAR SEN GUPTA was deputed to the INDAW Front with a party of the S.S.Group and remained there till August, 1944, when the party returned to RANGOON, many of the members having fallen ill. Shortly afterwards, he moved with the S.S.Group to KANAYUT and then to INSIEN when he ultimately surrendered to the Allied troops along with the group on the 5th. May, 1945.

6 February, 1947.

My dear Sardar Naranjan Singh Ji,

Jai Hind.

I have been told by officers returning from the Calcutta meeting that the Sikh public in Calcutta is very anxious to see me in Calcutta. I am very grateful for their kind remembrance and sentiments and I assure you that I too am anxious to come to Calcutta.

In this connection I hope you remember the talk we had at Meerut. You told me then that you would write to me and that you would give me a month's or three weeks' notice to arrange my programme accordingly. I have waited for your letter.

Due to certain reasons I am sorry that I could not come to Calcutta during Netaji's birthday celebrations and I am sorry if I have disappointed the Calcutta public. I hope the public would be kind enough to forgive me. To make amends I shall now hold myself ready to come to Calcutta provided you give me three weeks' notice.

Although I have not written to you after we parted at Meerut I carried back to Punjab with me very pleasant and affectionate memories of the heart-to-heart talks with you. I am looking forward to meet you. I also take this opportunity to thank through you the public of Calcutta for their desire to meet me.

89, Warden Road,
Bombay 15th Jan. 1947.

My dear Bhai,

I received your letter a couple of days back. I am sorry I could not reply to it earlier. Frankly I was very much distressed to read that letter. (Never in my dreams I can imagine that after all that you have done this is the kind of treatment that has been meted out.) Still as you know we have been all brought up on the traditions of Subas Babu and Bhai who believed that it was wrong to expect anything and much greater wrong to smart under a wrong or to go under it. What others do or do not do should not affect our lives.

After your letter I have been making inquiries for a suitable job and two offers have been made and I should be very happy if you can make arrangement to come here as soon as you possibly can. We shall discuss everything when you arrive here.

With love, I remain,

Yours affectionately,

I returned from leave on the s.s. Britannic, which sailed from Liverpool on January 4th carrying troops. After a few days out I became aware of a group of Indians consisting of ex German I.N.A. officers. Two of them Ganguly and Chouduri said that they had been staff officers to Subhas Chandra Bose in Germany; both spoke perfect German. There were also three or four sepoys of the German I.N.A. travelling on the troop deck. In the company of these Indians there was a German, travelling as their guest who claimed to have had an Indian mother. This man who is Dr. Ram, had with him a very up to date collection of cameras and cinecameras equipped with telescopic lenses. I was surprised to see that any point where we sighted land, i.e. Gibraltar, Malta, Port Said and Suez Dr. Ram spent a great deal of his time photographing almost everything in sight. I drew the attention of a couple of officers at my table to this, who decided to report the matter to the O.C. troops, as well as the fact that the I.N.A. officers were constantly in touch with the Indian contingent which we picked up at Suez. The O.C. though personally agreeing that the activity of these gentlemen was doubtful, informed us that he had received orders to discontinue every form of security as from January 1st 1947, and consequently there was nothing he could do. He left it open to us to report the matter at Bombay though this obviously was impracticable. From inquiries I made, it appeared that Dr. Ram had during the war served with the German High Command as an expert in high velocity photography, with particular reference to research on armour plating etc. I was unable to find out the purpose of his visit to India, except that he was going to Calcutta with his two Bengali friends as their guests. He is a young man of very Germanic appearance well dressed, and if he has Indian blood in him, it certainly does not show. He never was in the company of any other Europeans on the ship, and though he spoke quite good English, he usually spoke in German to his friends.

In the statement they say, "The I.N.A. was raised on the principles and under the flag of the I.N.C. We still believe that the Congress is the only organisation which can successfully launch the final struggle to drive out the British from India. With a view to preparing the country for this struggle we undertake to bring communal harmony and religious toleration, and to organise, train, and discipline the masses for the final phases of the battle".

Part III - Congress Groups

(iii) Forward Bloc

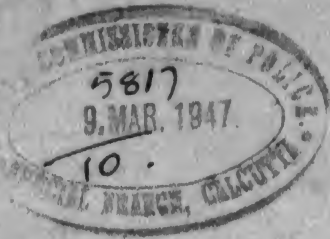

3. Calcutta.

Sardar Sardul
Singh Chaudhary and Lala Sankar Lal Basal (ex-security prisoners) held an informal discussion with Shah Nawaz and two other I.N.A. leaders on 29th January at the residence of Sarat Chandra Bose on the subject of the amalgamation of the I.N.A. and the Forward Bloc. Shah Nawaz stated that the I.N.A. officers had petitioned the Interim Government for their reinstatement in the Indian Army and the payment of their arrear pay and allowances, and that until this matter was settled he did not think that they should openly associate with any anti-Congress group.
